

Oct 15th Emergency Cabinet Meeting

Topic: What it means to be apart of the RCLS organization as a Library Workers of Color Organization

- RCLS comes with board approval regulations for any changes such as name changes
- RCLS gives LWC group legitimacy as it will be associated with a library system
- RCLS as the attached name has a tone that may unintentionally exclude others who may want to join in on activities.
- All activities would have to go through the RCLS calendar
- RCLS would offer support regardless of collaborative status
- Trainings have more legitimacy when they have the library system label
- If they group wants to be considered a NYLA Round Table, RCLS has to come out of the name
- Questioning where the Coalition see's itself?....
- Group decided to table the RCLS vote until November's Meeting
- Most members agree that we should keep it locally based to keep accessibility
- Peyton Powell will be incoming RCLS board member
- Nyack Library started a podcast called PaperCut which launches on Monday Oct 19th

Next E-board Meeting Monday October 19th @ 1pm

- RCLS name
- By-Laws
- Advocacy - How to promote what we did from the letter from Juneteenth
- Coalition Podcast? Ex. Libvoices
